

2012 Special Events

Cuisine Along the Ravine

February 11, 6 p.m.

Join the Friends of Preservation Parks at The Lodge at Deer Haven Preserve for this annual, romantic dinner.

The price is $100 per couple, and includes a multi-course gourmet dinner and silent auction.

Reservations are due by Jan. 27 and can be made by calling 740-524-8600, ext. 1 or 6, or e-mailing saundras@preservationparks.com

The funds raised by the event support the parks, programs and nature education.

Osprey Homecoming (Hogback Ridge Preserve, 2656 Hogback Road)

April 15, 1-4p.m.

Help us celebrate the ospreys' return from wintering in South America.

Have fun and learn more about these fascinating raptors while participating in fun, family-oriented activities that focus on ospreys and other birds of prey.

Join local experts in viewing the nesting platforms in Alum Creek Reservoir.

Free admission.

Park Safari Challenge

June 17, Time TBA

Pack your car with family and friends and travel from park to park, completing puzzles and fun activities along the way!

The event ends with a picnic dinner. More information TBA

Thursday Concert Series

July 5, 12, 19 & 26

August 2 & 9

Concert lineup and details TBA

Perseid Meteor Shower Campout

August 11 @ 7pm through

August 12 to 9am

Join us around the campfire as we watch for meteors streaking across the sky! Bring your own food, drinking water and camping gear. We'll provide activities.

More information TBA

Green-Wise Fair (Deer Haven Preserve, 4183 Liberty Road)

August 26, Time TBA

Does adopting a "green" way of life seem daunting? It doesn't have to be!

You can pick up green living tips at the Green-Wise Fair at Deer Haven Preserve. Explore simple ways to "reduce, reuse and recycle" through fun, interactive activities with Preservation Parks and other ecology-minded organizations.

Free admission.

Trick-or-Treat Trail (Gallant Woods Preserve, 2151 Buttermilk Hill Road)

October 21, 1-4pm

Costumed characters will greet you and your kids as you wind your way along the Acorn Trail in search of treats. Enjoy hay rides and decorating pumpkins too!

Free admission